

NEW-YORK AT CHICAGO.

FIRST DISTRICT CONVENTIONS.

ALBANY COUNTY SPLIT IN HALF.

TWO CONVENTIONS, ONE FOR ARTHUR AND ONE FOR BLAINE—SHARP PRACTICE AND BAD BLOOD.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)

ALBANY, April 9.—Potter's Hotel, a small country inn at Slingerlands, this town, was used as a convention hall by the delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention to-day. Slingerlands Congressional Convention to-day. Slingerlands because it is a small place, and was chosen because it was feared that if the convention were held in Albany there might be a riot. The delegates were not so much interested in the election as in the personal animosity between the two candidates. The delegates were not so much interested in the election as in the personal animosity between the two candidates. The delegates were not so much interested in the election as in the personal animosity between the two candidates.

But the Arthur managers concluded that, by excluding some of the informality in their election, they could secure an apparent majority in the convention. It had been decided by them to object to the reception of the certificates of election of the six delegates from the Sixteenth Ward of Albany, all Blaine men. The plot was obvious. The other Blaine men determined that they would not permit it to be carried out. When the convention hour drew near there was intense excitement at the hotel and in the village. There were present directing the operations of the two forces ex-Mayor Judson, Andrew S. Draper, ex-Sheriff Honck, John F. Smyth, William H. Haskell, Collector Luby, Postmaster Craig and every other practical Republican politician in Albany County. Andrew S. Draper, the State Committee-man, and Collector Luby led the Arthur delegates, and ex-Mayor Judson and W. H. Haskell the Blaine delegates. Mr. Smyth gave energetic aid to the Blaine delegates.

BLAINE MEN EXCLUDED.

The convention was called to order by Alderman Mead, of this city, one of the Arthur managers. The calling of the roll of the convention at once precipitated a conflict. All went well until the XVth Ward was reached. Then Mr. Mead refused to accept the certificates of election held by the delegates, on the ground that they were signed by only one of the two inspectors of election. Caswell, another Arthur man, one of the inspectors, refused to sign the certificate, on the singular ground that Blaine men made too many challenges. A suit was brought against him to compel him to sign the certificate, and he acknowledged that the Blaine men had 100 votes and the Arthur men only 120 at the XVth Ward. Yet he had determined not to sign the certificate. On this point Mr. Mead refused to receive the certificates of election, although one of his inspectors certified that they were correct. His decision left the vote of the two factions almost perfectly even. The majority of either was not over one.

TWO CONVENTIONS AND FIGHTING.

When a vote came to be taken for chairman, Mr. Mead declared that George H. Fitts, the Arthur candidate, had received 74 votes and William H. Haskell, the Blaine candidate, only 73. It will be perceived that if the six excluded Blaine votes had been counted, Mr. Haskell would have been elected. The Blaine men also declare that they had a majority of one, even without the six excluded votes, and that the Arthur men were intentionally excluded. As the "result" was announced, the convention divided into two conventions. There was a scene of great violence and confusion. The delegates of the two factions were separated. The Arthur delegates were in the hall, and the Blaine delegates were in the hall. The Arthur delegates were in the hall, and the Blaine delegates were in the hall. The Arthur delegates were in the hall, and the Blaine delegates were in the hall.

A CONTENTIOUS DELEGATION THE RESULT.

There will, therefore, be contesting delegations from the Albany Congressional District at Chicago. It is thought here that the Blaine delegation will be put on the roll of the National Convention, inasmuch as Mr. Smyth has favored it, and his influence with Thomas C. Platt, the representative of New-York in the National Committee, is great.

MONROE COUNTY ANTI-ARTHUR.

DELEGATES UNPLEDGED, BUT OPPOSED TO THE PRESIDENT.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 9.—The Republican Convention for the XXXth Congressional District, held in Rochester to-day, resulted in the election of Leonard Burritt, of Ogden, and Halbert H. Warner, of Rochester, as delegates to the National Convention, with Dr. Jonas Jones and Dayton S. Morgan as alternates. Both are unpledged as to Presidential candidates, but it is understood that Mr. Burritt's first choice is Edmunds and Mr. Warner's preference is for Blaine. Both are decidedly anti-Arthur. Although Mr. Burritt, from the necessities of the case, was a convention of 170 delegates, the canvass at the end resolved itself into a contest between the city and the country. The original programme of the anti-Arthur men comprehended the sending of Mr. Warner and Alexander B. Lambert to the National Convention, but much of the anti-Arthur strength voted for a resolution directing that one delegate should be taken from the country and one from the city, and that only one delegate should be voted for on a single roll call. This resolution prevailed, and Mr. Burritt was then elected by a majority of about 30 over Dayton S. Morgan. When the vote was taken for the delegate from the city, Mr. Lambert was declared to be a candidate. Mr. Warner received 104 votes, Jones 6, and William F. Peck 4. The vote for Jones represents, as accurately as can be ascertained, the Arthur strength in the convention, although even Dr. Jones has not declared his adherence to Arthur.

SULLIVAN COUNTY AGAINST ARTHUR.

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., April 9.—At the Republican County Convention, held at Port Jervis to-day, Monticello veterans, George H. Carpenter, Daniel W. Bogart and Dewitt Knapp were elected delegates to the State Convention at Utica. The following were elected delegates-at-large to the Congressional Convention to be held at Monticello, April 15: W. C. Cogswell, R. B. Jolly, C. Murray, Henry Knecht, A. Newman and John W. Warner. The delegates were unpledged, but are strongly anti-Arthur.

QUITT CONVENTION AT PALMYRA.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)

LYONS, N. Y., April 9.—The Republican Convention in the HD Assembly District of Wayne County, held at Lyons to-day, was entirely harmonious. There was no speech making, and the delegates proceeded at once to balloting for delegates to the State Convention and the Congressional District Convention at Oswego on April 15. To the former, Piny T. Sexton, William Krutzer, Jefferson Sherman and Percy George were chosen, and to the latter John McGonigal, Byron B. H. Davis and Albert Yeomans were sent. The general feeling of the convention was decidedly anti-Arthur. Blaine and Edmunds have many followers in the district.

RESOLUTIONS BY YOUNG REPUBLICANS.

THE YOUNG MEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB MET AT NO. 21 WEST TWENTY-SEVENTH-ST. LAST EVENING. JAMES W. HAVES PRESIDING. RESOLUTIONS WERE ADOPTED INDORSING THE COURSE OF THEORETIC ROOSEVELT AND FREDERICK S. GIBBS, REGARDING THE CITIZENS' COMMITTEE OF FIFTY THREE TO PROPOSE A PLAN BY WHICH A CITIZENS' ORGANIZATION MAY BE FORMED TO PUT PROPER CANDIDATES IN NOMINATION FOR NATIONAL OFFICES FOR THE NEXT GENERAL ELECTION, AND TO APPOINT A COMMITTEE OF FIVE TO URGE THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONvention such measures as would enlarge the membership of the State conventions.

AT THE PRIMARIES.

BROOKLYN EVENLY DIVIDED.

INDICATIONS THAT FOUR ARTHUR AND FOUR ANTI-ARTHUR DELEGATES WILL BE CHOSEN.

There was much interest yesterday in Brooklyn in the Republican primaries held in all the wards to elect delegates to the Congressional Convention, which will select the delegates from Kings County to the Chicago Convention. The structure of the Administration and the anti-Administration forces was a determined one, and the contest was further complicated by the rivalry of ward leaders over personal matters. The Administration forces were marshaled by State Senator Daggett and Michael J. Daly, Superintendent of Federal Buildings, who contested first, last and all the time for the nomination of President Arthur, who promise to hand over to his support at Chicago the eight votes of Kings County. Well-to-do but less partisan politicians discount their statements one-half, and allow to the President only four votes from Brooklyn, on a liberal estimate. The Administration opponents are variously divided between supporters of Edmunds, Blaine, Sherman, Logan and "anybody but Arthur."

Some of the primaries were held as early as 3:30 p.m. and continued until 10:30. An unusually large vote was polled and the counting was not all completed until midnight. The general result showed, as nearly as could be ascertained at that hour, that the Administration forces had defeated in two of the four Congressional Districts. In the 11th District, Senator Daggett hoped to control, he was defeated in his own ward. The Senate District, which elected delegates favorable to the choice of Andrew D. Baird as a National Convention delegate, Mr. Baird is understood to have been nominated by Blaine or Edmunds. The two other most important wards in this district are the events of Tuesday, when in both the Administration and the anti-Administration forces were defeated. The other delegate from the district to Chicago is likely to be ex-Senator Schuchert, of the 12th Ward, or William J. Ward, of the 13th Ward.

In the 14th Congressional District, which includes the only ward in the city where the Administration forces were defeated, the contest was very close. The Administration forces were defeated in the 14th Ward, but the anti-Administration forces were defeated in the 15th Ward. The contest was very close, and the result was a tie.
